July Program- Barry Jackson

The July program will be presented by former HPS member, Barry Jackson. His program is titled "Barry Jackson shares old rules, new images and techniques, including HDR."

Barry was born and currently lives in Lawrenceburg in the hills of southern middle Tennessee. He studied photography at Middle Tennessee State University. Harold Baldwin and the Photographic Gallery he started there inspired Barry to pursue photography as art.

Barry has received numerous prestigious awards for his photography, but he says that some of the awards he is most proud of are the ones he received from HPS. In addition to winning the President's Award six times and holding the record for that achievement, he received black and white print of the year awards in 1991, 1994, 2000, and 2002; and color print of the year in 1994, 1999, and 2001.

In his art show career he has won "Best of Show" at Summer Lights in

Scott Kelby's 2nd Annual Worldwide Photo Walk is scheduled for Saturday, July 18, 2010. The event is FREE. In Huntsville the walk is scheduled from 3:00 to 5:00, starting point is the steps outside the VBC. The photo walk is a social photography event where photographers get together usually in a downtown or trendy area of town, to walk around, shoot photos, and generally have fun with other photographers. At the end of the walk, participants will gather at a local restaurant to socialize and look at photos from the day. The walk leader in each city will choose a winning photo. Walk participants are not required to enter the competition. For prize and additional walk info, go to http://worldwidephotowalk.com/huntsville-al-usa/. Each city is limited to 50 participants. As of June 29, 15 openings remain in Huntsville.

Nashville, Amish Acres Festival in Indiana and the Helen Keller Festival in Tuscumbia. He has also won "Best Booth" award at smaller shows such as Arts Alive in Florence and the Smithville Tennessee Fiddler's Convention. He has received the "People's Choice" award at Panoply, here in Huntsville.

Barry may have quit counting, but in 2004, he had won somewhere around 125 awards!

His photographs are in the collection of The Tennessee State Museum in Nashville, MTSU Photographic gallery in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, and the Tennessee Valley Art Museum in Tuscumbia, where his photograph was the first one they had ever bought. The most prestigious are probably his photographs that are in the Harry Ransom Center at the University of Texas in Houston. The Harry Ransom has one of the largest collections in the world, including the first photograph ever made.

Barry says "With my photography as artwork I am trying to share with you my wonderment with life. My subjects are as varied as life itself. I love the animate, the inanimate, nature, industrial, new, old, action, and rest. I love to extend time and to freeze it. I love that we can hold in our hand and view a moment in time. I also love that I can create worlds and scenes that have never existed except in my mind."

From The President

June started a little rocky with a mix up on our meeting location. Charles with Trinity really came through for us and found an alternate room for us to use and the show went on. Our program was present by HPS member Robert Schuffert. Robert has published one book on photographic sites in northern Alabama concentrating on waterfalls. Roberts second book is close to production and covers Tennessee. Robert gave us lots of insight into his process and how he laid the books out. Robert had lots of good stories of his adventures in making the book. We're all looking forward to his next book.

June's competition topic was "People at Work". Surprisingly our volume wasn't quite up to the norm. I'm not sure if the topic wasn't of as much interest as others or if people were just too busy this month. I know the latter was the case for me. The images that were presented were very good, as usual. The winners in both the color print and digital really blew me away. Good job Barbara and Diana and to all the winners. Thanks to Tony Triolo for doing a wonderful job judging this competition and giving lots of feedback.

Kodachrome is going bye-bye. Joe Boyd announced at the meeting that Kodak would be discontinuing production of Kodachrome slide film. Joe is working with Barbara Hitt to help create one last traditional HPS photo shootout. So dust off your old film cameras for one last hurrah. For more details, see article in this month's newsletter.

Just a reminder, we'll be back at the library for the rest of the year. I hope everyone is enjoying their summer. Keep the camera handy. You never know when you'll get that perfect shot.

July Judge

The judge for July's competition will be Allison Jansen. Allison is a portrait photographer here in Huntsville. She owns Allison Jansen Photography on Meridian Street and specializes in relationship photography. She does absolutely beautiful wedding photography but I think she really shines in her baby photography. She has a working relationship with Huntsville Hospital's maternity staff and is able to actually go into the delivery suite when one of her clients is having a baby. This allows Dad to be able to put down his camera and care for Mom during this important event, knowing that Allison is capturing all the important images. She accompanies the baby into the nursery and documents the first bath, the first diaper change, all of the other spontaneous precious moments that happen when life is just beginning. Her website is www.allisonjansenphotography.com. Check her out and be ready to welcome her in July!

Appreciating Kodachrome

By Joe Boyd

On June 22, Kodak announced that it is discontinuing production of Kodachrome film in 2009. Kodachrome was Kodak's first color slide emulsion, introduced 74 years ago. Kodachrome was the gold-standard of professional and amateur photographers up through the 1980's and has yet to be rivaled for it's color accuracy. You can find out more information about Kodachrome at The Kodachrome Project on the web at (http://kodachromeproject.com)

In honor of the history that Kodachrome has contributed to photography in general, and countless images presented at HPS over the years, HPS is organizing a "shootout" of Kodachrome film. Using our shootout format where each participant gets a roll of Kodachrome to shoot for a few weeks, return the film to be processed and then select a group of images for a program in the future. The subject of the shootout will be open. We'll be using ISO 64 Kodachrome in 36 exposure rolls. We will have a panel of judges select the first to third and honorable mentions. Prizes will be awarded for slides placing first to third, and only to those in attendance. Shootout awards will not count towards HPS competition points.

Each participant will pay $22 to cover the cost of purchasing and processing the Kodachrome. The film will be processed at Dwayne's Photo in Parsons, Kansas. All film needs to be turned in by October 26, 2009 to be processed. No push or pull processing will be done due to the potential confusion and additional cost. HPS will not refund the cost of any unused film or processing.

The presentation of the slides will be at the program meeting in January, 2010. The Shootout presentation will consist of slides only.

The tentative schedule is:

- ⇒ July 13, 27 Sign-up ($22 Payment is due, check payable to HPS preferred, sign-up begins at 6:45pm both days).
- ⇒ August 10 Distribute film.
- ⇒ October 26 Final collection of film for processing.
- ⇒ November 23 Slide distribution.
- ⇒ December 14 Submission of selected slides.
- ⇒ January 11 Shootout presentation.

You do not need to be a member of HPS to participate, but logistics (film delivery and turn-in, slide distribution, award presentations) of the Shootout will be handled at HPS meetings only. No secondary mailings or drop-shipments will be done.

Finally, Kodachrome appears to be in short supply. The number of participants may be limited to the amount of film that can be purchased at a reasonable cost. If sufficient film cannot be found at a reasonable cost, payments will be refunded.

If you have questions, contact Joe Boyd at boydjw@hiwaay.net or 256-881-6066.
